RUNAWAY YOUTH IS CAUGHT AT LAST

Willie Chamberlain appears to have aspirations in the way of becoming a man of the type of Jesse James. The lad, who is about sixteen years of age, who disappeared from home three months ago and although his brothers have been searching for him all the time, they have been unable to locate him till yesterday afternoon.

Willie was discovered by one of his brothers, who happened across him on the waterfront. The boy attempted to get away when he saw his brother, or but the other man managed to capture the runaway.

As William is considered to be incorrigible, the family has decided to send what a term in the Reform school will do. When the boy was taken to the police station this morning the corrupt on watch searched him. The first thing that came to light was an old-fashioned 22 revolver. It was loaded and ready for use. Then a box of cartridges was fished out of the boy's pocket and finally thirty loose shells were located in another pocket.

The lad said that he had won the gun in a game that is being run in the city at present. He claims to have thrown a ring over the article which, with many other prizes, was displayed on a table.

OVER ONE hundred cabin passengers left Honolulu for Maui and Her mau Kea at noon today. The greater portion of the travelers were mainland tourists who were bound for the Volcano. The Mauna Kea also carried a large general cargo to the big island.
Of the sixty Volcano visitors who left by the vessel a goodly number secured return passage by the Kona and Kau steamer Mauna Loa. There was a large crowd present at the Inter-land wharf to witness the departure of both the Mauna Kea and the Mauna Loa.

WATERFRONT NOTES

IT WAS officially announced at San Francisco on January 31 that the steamer Hyades has been purchased by the Matson Navigation Company from the Boston Towboat Company.
The freighter, which has been operating for some time under charter to the Matson Company, will be formally taken over by her new owners on her arrival from Honolulu. For some time it has been known that negotiations were under way which would result in the well known carrier changing hands, but no confirmation was made of the deal until January 31, when Captain Matson made the announcement. The terms of the sale are private. The Hyades will operate on the Matson Company's triangular run between San Francisco, Puget Sound ports and Hawaii ports, in conjunction with the big passenger steamer Hiconian of the same fleet, which will be taken off the direct run to Honolulu when the new liner Wilhelmina goes into service February 10. The Hyades is a steel freighter of 3753 gross tons and 2932 net. She was built at Sparrows Point, Md., in 1909, and has seen service on both the Atlantic and Pacific. She was in the Oriental trade for some time, and also operated to Alaska. For more than a year she has been under charter to the Matson Company. She is 221.5 feet long, 47 feet beam and 12.5 feet depth of hold, with engines of 1500 horse-power.

Delays are dangerous, particularly when it comes to making your will.

FLEET NOTES

This morning the police patrol wagon was called to the U. S. S. Pennsylvania, an don arrival there found that a bluejacket named W. J. Hope was very ill with inflammatory rheumatism. The Jackie was too ill to proceed on his ship to the mainland, and it was decided to send him to the Queen's Hospital, till he is well enough to proceed home.

The ship's patrol was recalled from duty at noon today, and all the men after the roll had been called at the police station, marched down to their ships.

Sheriff Jarrett has issued orders to the county police to arrest any strangers who may be found in the city.
All the Jackies are supposed to be on board their respective ships, and any who may be found in the future will be handed over to the naval authorities of this city.

The Sheriff is well pleased with the way the sailors behaved themselves while on shore, for with one or two exceptions there was not much trouble.

HUNDRED AND FIFTY
FOR THE MONGOLIA

There will be sufficient accommodation for all applicants for passage to San Francisco by the big Pacific Mail liner Mongolia, which is expected to sail for the Coast on February 18.

The Mongolia sailed from Yokohama yesterday with twenty-three hundred tons of general cargo from Oriental ports destined for Honolulu.
The vessel is coming here with at least one hundred and fifty first-class accommodations, and the advance bookings at the agency of H.
Hickfield & Co. indicate that nearly this number will travel to San Francisco by the liner.

The Mongolia is due to arrive here on the 17th. She will be given a prompt despatch and there is a possibility that the Territorial officials will permit the steamer to come alongside the new Alakea-street wharf to discharge cargo and take on her mainland-bound passengers.

POLICE COURT JOTTINGS

Fourteen out of twenty-two cases at the police court this morning were continued to various dates ahead.
Most of them were gambling cases, and the defense in most instances was not ready to proceed.

Kami, a Japanese wahine, was allowed to depart, as she is a witness in a case in which a Portuguese named Moniz is charged with extortion. The man visited the Japanese house and, claiming he was a police officer, purloined all the good things therein, and then made the proprietor of the place dig up 75 cents into the bargain. Moniz is out on $100 bonds and his case will come up for trial next Saturday.

Sam Kaiminanaue was charged with assaulting a Chinese baker who called to collect a little bill. According to the baker's story, he got punched on the nose instead of getting any money.

Judge Andrade listened to both sides of the case and then decided to give his decision on Saturday next.

CHIEF McDUFFIE IS
AFTER DOPE MEN

Chief of Detectives McDuffie made an important arrest yesterday afternoon when he stopped a stage on the Pal road and took into custody a Chinese, who was found to have six tins of opium in his possession.

The chief and his men, from information received, became convinced that some smuggled dope was going over the other side of the Pal on the stages that ply for hire. An automobile was chartered, and a start made after the suspected man had gone some miles in the stage. Near the brick works the coach was overhauled, and a search of the Chinese's effects resulted in the poppy juice being located in a box of oranges.

The chief is convinced that although the boxes bore stamps, that the opium was smuggled, and then put into second-hand boxes that bore the revenue stamps.

The case will be gone into thoroughly, and every endeavor made to get a line on the smuggling that, in the opinion of the police authorities, is surely being carried on at the present time.
